Spring birds

With the coming of spring, the birds that found it hard to find food during the winter months finally return to their breeding grounds. The long, bright summer days are ideal for hunting insects, giving the birds the opportunity to raise a larger number of chicks here than if they had stayed and bred in their winter location. Anna Handell's personal interpretations of some of our spring birds are perfect for happy springtime greetings.

Bridal mittens

The increasing trade in second-hand goods has brought a need for higher denominations for heavier mail. Our new stamp with a denomination of SEK 50 depicts bridal mittens from the county of Blekinge. Lina Odell has created her own mittens based on a pair displayed in Karlshamn Museum in the same county.
